

Story Retell Rubric

Directions: Mark the sentences that are correct for your story retell. With practice you can become great at retelling stories.

Super Story Reteller

- My story retell has the beginning, middle, and end events of the story.
- My story retell has the events of the story in correct order.
- My story retell includes the most important details about the setting, characters, and their problem.
- The ending tells how the story ends and how the problem got solved.

Beginning Story Reteller

- My story is missing one of the events of the story (beginning, middle, or end).
- The events are not told in order.
- My story is missing important details about the setting, characters, and their problem.
- My ending needs to tell how the problem is solved and what happens as the story ends.